

Dolores Huerta Lesson

By Wendy Greenfield

Topic: Dolores Huerta: A Leader for Justice	Grade: K-1 st	Duration:
---	--------------------------	-----------

Essential Question: How do people work together to solve problems and struggle to implement the solution?

Kinder Standards

History-Social Science Standards:
“The stories of ordinary and extraordinary people help describe the range and continuity of human experience and introduce the concepts of courage, self-control. Justice, heroism, leadership, deliberation, and individual responsibility. Historical empathy for how people lived and worked long ago reinforces the concept of civil behavior: how we interact respectfully with each other, following rules, and respecting the rights of others.
K.1.2 Learn examples of honesty, courage, determination, individual responsibility, and patriotism in American and world history from stories and folklore.
K.1.3 Students match simple descriptions of work that people do and the names of related jobs at the school, in the local community, and from historical accounts.
K.6.1 Identify the purposes of, and the people and events honored in, commemorative holidays, including the human struggles that were the basis for the event.
CCSS>ELA-LITERACY.RI.K.4 With prompting and supporting, describe the connection between two individuals, events, ideas, or pieces of information in a text.
RI.K.4 With prompting and support, ask and answer questions about unknown words in a text.

First Grade Standards

“Students in the first grade are ready to learn more about the world they live in, about the choices they make, and about their responsibilities to other people. They begin to learn how necessary it is for people and groups to work together and how to resolve problems through cooperation.”

1.1 Students describe the rights and individual responsibilities of citizenship.
1.1.2 Understand the elements of fair play; respect for the rights and opinions of others including the meaning of the “Golden Rule”.
1.5.1 Recognize the ways in which they are all part of the same community, sharing principles, goals, and traditions despite their varied ancestry; the forms of diversity in their school and community; and the benefits and challenges of a diverse population.
1.5.2 Understand the ways in which American Indians and immigrants have helped define Californian and American culture.
1.6.2 Identify the specialized work that people do to manufacture, transport, and market goods and services and the contributions of those who work in the home.

Read “Gathering the Sun” pp. Isla, Lechuga, Farmworker

– Where is this? What are the people doing? How do they feel? Are farmworkers treated respectfully?

Read: Dolores: A Leader for Justice (working title) by Wendy Greenfield Introduce: We have seen that farmworkers work hard, are tired, are living in tents or poor housing. Now let’s read about an important leader who taught farmworkers how to make changes in how they were treated.

Draw/Write thoughts about the topic in journal (prompt with language frames if desired). Examples:

- “One thing I learned is _____”
- “Today I noticed that _____”
- “So far, I have learned _____. This makes me think/feel _____”

•Day 3:

Cognitive Content Dictionary: Ask what “farmworker” means. Why do you think that?

New signal word: “leader”(Predictions, interactive writing, clapping syllables; T gives 2-3 definition with movement to be used as signal word to get class’s attention throughout the day)

Revisit KWL Add what students have learned and if they have new questions.

Reread Dolores: A Leader for Justice (working title) by Wendy Greenfield, a few select pages at a time.

Activity: Class Discussion

Review farmworker conditions per student discussion Day 1. Was the Golden Rule applied to farmworkers? (1st Grade CA standard)

Exit ticket:

Preview Day 4 by having students think about a situation they were involved in that was unfair and what was done about it.

•Day 4:
